

Benchmark models only where the ground truth is sufficiently resolved.

Predicted rankability is a relative triage tool, not a universal depth calculator.