

Measurement resolution defines the valid biological claim - below-floor cases are not model failures.